There is no one model of student who thrives at Davies. All our students are exceptional and share our commitment to excellence. To begin with, you must be highly motivated. You must have excellent communication skills and a fierce attention to detail. You must also demonstrate an ability to tackle complex problems - along with a talent for finding innovative, sometimes unexpected solutions. We're interested in people who will enrich and strengthen our firm with their diverse experiences, achievements and personal stories. Over the years, students with remarkably varied educational backgrounds have launched successful careers with us. Tight-knit, collegial, open-minded and diverse, we have high expectations of ourselves and one another.

If our values align with yours, we hope you'll take the next step: apply to join our diverse, multi-talented team. We only accept electronic applications through the vi-desktop portal. You can find the link on our website.
